Security agencies that continuously monitor the social media propaganda has sent a list to center of Indian vloggers, influencers and YouTubers who are working on pro-China narrative.

If you remember some months back CCP stooge Singham and NewsClick connection came under probe. The agenda was again same - Selling China story. But that was more for a particular class.

3/

Agencies said that now CCP sponsoring vloggers to work on China story, including Tibet, Wuhan, Xinjiang (genocide allegations in Uyghur), to project "normal" lives against the international narrative, specifically in the adverse countries like India.

Another set of examples

CCP propaganda machinery work very strategically in such matters. Not exactly we can call it PsyOp but surely a subset of it. The sentiments and normalisation of disputed provinces these videos will invoke in the mind of viewers.

Agency also cautioned that these travel enthusiasts vloggers might have taken it as just travel opportunities.

Nonetheless noted as national security threats. The list is not restricted to YouTubers but expanded to other platforms too.

8/

China excel the art of proxy wars, info war, PsyOp and what their PLA know as Unrestricted Warfare- that tackles enemy nation without firing a bullet.

9/

Important part - these vloggers are provided internet and some of restricted areas access too only for these videos purposes.

10/

Someone just shared it. The language of China state sponsored media Global Times corroborated the same.

#Attitudes: Among many foreign #backpackers now traveling in China, at least three #Indian vloggers stand out. Some of their videos have gained more than 1 million views on YouTube, and Indian netizens commented their videos presenting China from inside are “a myth buster in this age of misinformation and hatred.” globaltimes.cn/page/202306/12...
